An update from the Pastor:

First, Leslie and I give thanks to God for your prayer. A strange this occurred the first week of August. Leslie notices a lump on my face. Last Friday it was removed at GBMC by a wonder face-neck surgeon. We know it tested positive for a cancer, but we don't know the type, cause, where it came from and future treatment. All body scans have been clear. It may be a skin cancer cell that was missed or something else. Doctor said it's a strange case, meaning its different. Surgeon feels it was contained in the salvia gland and he removed all of it. He said surrounding area all looked to his view clear. We will know more after Lab work is completed. However, he did have to move the nerve in my face around some which is causing pain and affecting chewing, talking etc. It will take some time for all of that to improve and get back to normal. I am very thankful that Pastor Floyd and Ronnie have taken on Sunday worship until I am able to return. While I can't do much talking right now, I will continue clergy texts, email, and communications needed.

Blessings,

Pastor Steve
